Fierce Competition in Atlanta

by David Still

Rainy weather caused a rescheduling of the January 9th AA match to January 16th. Robert Crocker brought his new Leupold-Premier 20-50x 50MM scope to the match for the attending members to view.

Saturday's makeup match resulted in extremely tight scores among the top four competitors. Robert Crocker won the match with a score of 50 of 54. Tommy Garland scored 49 of 54 targets to take First Place in the Precharged Class. Joel Hansel took First Place honors in the Spring Piston Class with a score of 31 of 54 targets.

After the match, the club members met to vote on hosting a regional match in Atlanta in 1999. The club decided to host a regional tournament in either May or June of this year. AA hopes to have a most memorable regional tournament drawing from past experience in hosting major tournaments.

Volunteers Needed

Atlanta Regional Match in 1999

Ken Hughes is requesting assistance from AA membership and other volunteers interested in preparing our facility for the 1999 Atlanta Summer Regional Field Target Match. The match, to be held in May or June, will require much preparation in hosting the major match with only 4 to 5 months to complete. It was also decided that a maximum of 40 shooters will be permitted given the AA's current course layout.

Volunteers will be required for painting and positioning field targets, identifying corporate sponsors, award selection, and other match logistics. Travel and hotel accommodations and Atlanta visitors information packet will need to be developed. Let's all pitch in.
