April 2000

AA Field Target Match

Match Results, April 8, 2000

Cold and Windy Challenge

by Ken Hughes

AA members started the morning off sitting in the rain under the covered firing lane. The rain finally stopped and then it got cold and windy, gusting to 20 mph. This, of course, made shooting a bit difficult.

Bennie came up from Albany, Georgia and brought his wife for the ride. It is always good to see Bennie and we appreciate him driving so far to come to our matches.

Only four shooters attended Saturday's challenging 60 shot course. Congratulations to Ken Hughes, Match Winner, with a score of 56 of 60. Walt Roller led the Precharged Class with a 53 of 60 score. Benny won the Spring Class with 26 of 60.

Crocker Captures Spring Nationals

April 1-2, 2000

The 2000 Cajun Spring Nationals, held in Baton Rouge, was said to be an easier course than last year's match. As a result, many shooters with identical scores grouped in contention for match lead positions.

Congratulations to AA member, Robert Crocker, the Match Champion, winning a 3-way shoot-off against David Bialecki and Steve Schultz. All three shooters had identical scores of 99 hits on 100 targets. Good shooting Robert.
